Bluebeam Software has an immediate need for a Jr. Designer with 0-2 years of experience to join our tight-knit Marketing team. The Jr. Designer will focus in print and digital advertising, assisting in the creation of branded collateral company-wide, trade show booth imagery, and more. This position is based in our corporate headquarters in Pasadena, CA and reports to our Creative Manager.

Here's what we're looking for someone to do:

- Support the Creative team by creating designs for various marketing campaigns including print and digital advertising, product collateral, trade show display imagery, and more.
- Use your creativity to create fresh new designs that fit our unique style and provide support for existing campaigns.
- Participate in creative meetings and contribute ideas to the creative process of product marketing.
- Share ideas! This is an opportunity to get real experience and contribute to the creative process of product marketing.

Requirement:

- Must be proficient using Illustrator and Photoshop.
- Must submit a portfolio along with resume for consideration.
- Must be a reliable self-starter who demonstrates professionalism, emotional maturity and sound judgment.
- Must be extremely comfortable learning new technology. After all, we are a software company.
- Must possess a thoughtful design eye with attention to detail
- Must be well organized and able to prioritize tasks.
- Bachelor's degree.

To apply, send an email to work@bluebeam.com including your resume, cover letter and link to an electronic portfolio. All candidates must be prepared to show samples of their work.
